

We will be meeting on May 25th at the Safeway Parking Lot at Commercial and Broadway at 7:30am sharp. If you would like to guarantee a ride out to Chilliwack or if you can take people in your vehicle please email: supportcheam@gmail.com

~
For more information visit supportcheam.wordpress.com

The Chilliwack Law Courts are located at 46085 Yale Rd. To get to the Cheam reservation continue down Yale Rd

East for about 20 minutes. Shortly after passing through the town of Rosedale, take a left at Old Yale Rd (by the park) and follow it until it ends. Then take a sharp right. You are now on the Cheam reserve. Follow this road up the small hill to the end. The community hall is blue and the last building on the road to your right.

CHEAM COURT SUPPORT ITINERARY

May 25th - 27th

"If you eat foods that are processed and controlled, then you are easy to be controlled, when you eat wild, you remain wild and free"
-Secwepmec Warrior

May 25th

9:00 - 4:30 Chilliwack Courts 204
Lunch break demonstration outside courthouse
6:00 - Dinner at community hall
7:30 - Movie screening - People of Cheam in conflict with the DFO

May 26th

7:30 - Breakfast at community hall
9:00 - 4:30 Chilliwack Courts 204
6:00 - Dinner at community hall
7:30 - Movie screening - "As Long as the Rivers Run" A documentary about the Puyallup people in conflict with the State over fishing at the Nisqually River (south east of Tacoma WA) in the late 60's early 70's

May 27th

7:30 - Breakfast at community hall
9:00 - 4:30 Chilliwack Courts 204
6:00 - Dinner at community hall
7:30 - TBA

The community hall is cozy, it has showers, and a kitchen, we will be bringing in mattresses. Dinner and breakfast will be provided by donation.

If you would like to stay at the hall please bring:
-a sleeping bag or blanket and pillow.
-dish, cup and utensils
-donation for dinner and breakfast at the Cheam community hall ($5 suggestion per meal)